

Ste. Genevieve Art Guild News Letter

August 2008

Summer is winding down and fall activities are foremost on our mind. But first, a review of summer activities. Only Several showed for the June paint out at Jane Naegar's farm. A THANK YOU to Jane for her hospitality in offering her farm for a day of painting and fun, if only more painters could have come. July paint out was cancelled due to very hot weather.

Art Walks on the 4th Friday of every month have been a buzz throughout town. Locations for a few participating studio/galleries are: Center for the Arts at 4th and Market; Galleria Ste. Genevieve; Studio De Michel; Lulu's Antiques (and art studio); Studio 221; Only Child Originals (all on Main Street) and the Mos Art Studio. Besides art, music and refreshments are also part of the evenings entertainment. Fun begins 6-9pm. For more information: web address <http://stegenartsforum.wordpress.com> or, contact Karen Kulberg, Studio 221, 221 North Main Street, Ste. Genevieve, MO 63670 1-573-883-9199.

Posters for the Friday Art Walks are on display throughout town AND the walks receive a monthly television spot. How neat!

The next Art Walk will be Friday Aug. 22, 6-9 pm. James Wilson will be the featured artist at Studio De Michel. Also, on Aug. 29, Alex Ward paintings will be on display at Studio De Michel.

Art guild members had the opportunity to participate in the Jour De Fete. Space was available in front of Mikes studio and in front of Judy's gallery and frame shop. Several artists participated. Sounds like summer has been good.
